FORT HOOD SOLDIER SENTENCED TO FEDERAL PRISON FOR POSSESSING AND DISTRIBUTING CHILD PORNOGRAPHY

(Waco, Texas) United States Attorney Johnny Sutton announced today that, 21-year-old GEORGE LUNDBERG was sentenced to 72 months in federal prison and fined $1,000 for possessing and distributing child pornography.

On April, 17, 2003, Lundberg, an Air Force enlistee stationed at Fort Hood, pled guilty and admitted to offering and distributing child pornography via the Internet to individuals in over 25 countries using the screen name "ChildLuvr."

U.S. Customs Service agents, after being presented with evidence of Lundberg's activities by German authorities, executed a search warrant at Lundberg's barracks on Fort Hood and seized a computer. Over 500 files containing images and movies of child pornography have been seized from the Lundberg's computer.

"Mr. Lundberg's sentence reflects the serious nature of this crime. Our office will continue to prosecute these cases to the fullest extent of the law," stated U.S. Attorney Johnny Sutton.

This case was initiated by the Federal German Police and investigated by the United States Customs Service. Assistant United States Attorney Greg Gloff prosecuted this case on behalf of the Government.
